

la Repubblica

ROMA MAXIMA

STORIES, PLACES AND SECRETS
GUIDEBOOK TO AN ETERNAL CITY

WHERE TO SLEEP

The narrow streets of Trastevere hide little workshops and handcraft shops where art and tradition still resist.

the maritozzi, brioches, even in their vegan version, along with cream bombs, montblanc in autumn, many different mignons, pics, take away desserts and ice creams. There is also a gourmet oasis, called Enoteca Ferrara ran from the Paolillo sisters, in the very heart of Piazza Trilussa.

For the Japanese cuisine lovers, the Coffee Pot (Via del Politeama 12) is the right place for happy hours, brunches, dinners, and cocktails. The XIV century renovated monastery hosting the hotel Santa Maria with nice rooms overlooking the indoor the garden, with orange trees, flower, and Mediterranean plants, will ensure you a lovely night of rest.

BUONANOTTE GARIBALDI

Charming Mansions

Trastevere - Via Garibaldi 83

www.buonanottegaribaldi.com - Tel. 0039 06 58 33 07 33

An exclusive guest-house conceived as an atelier where art, fashion and design are the same. This picturesque two floor mansion is also an exhibition space for the paintings on fabric made by the owner and artist Luisa Longo. Two of the three available rooms (double from 210 euros per night) overlooks a patio with orange trees and magnolias. The room "Roma" with private terrace reminds the colours of the Janiculum Hill sunset, the room "Cioccolato" has earthy nuances and the room "Tinto" has a bohemian atmosphere.

VILLA URBANI

Charming Mansions

Trastevere - Viale 30 Aprile 2

www.villaurbani.it - Tel. 0039 333 48 17 313

Lovely liberty cottage, turned into a charming b&cb, overlooks a quiet and tree-lined avenue on the crossroad between Janiculum, Monteverde Vecchio and Trastevere. Two bedrooms and a suite (double from 100 euros), with early century flooring, stuccos, and original frescos. The Orange Room will welcome you with its deco style geometries, the Golden is golden and the Red and Grey suite will surprise you with its lines recalling the Japanese harmony.